

NAME: _____ DATE: _____ PERIOD: _____

Zoology A – Chapter 5 – Reptiles and Birds – Form 6C ©

www.CrosswordWeaver.com

ACROSS

- 1 A group containing 180 species of worm lizards
- 6 Boomslangs and twig snakes are two snakes producing powerful _____ venoms
- 9 Muller's _____ is the theory that asexual populations experience a gradual decay in their DNA
- 11 The innermost germ layer in a developing embryo
- 12 Pythons and boas are two examples of _____ snakes
- 15 Small contour feathers covering the ear and also the base of flight feathers
- 16 Another word for feces
- 19 _____ umbilicus is a region at the base of a vane where afterfeathers are located

- 23 Flight feathers providing birds forward thrust
- 24 _____ organ is a cluster of sensory cells in the nasal chamber found in reptiles and mammals
- 25 They are also known as stomach stones
- 26 Set of vertebrae of the spinal column in the neck region of a bird

DOWN

- 2 The collection of feathers a bird has
- 3 Four-toe arrangement in some birds, in which all four toes point forward
- 4 A family of birds hatching at the same time
- 5 It means "lizard faces"
- 7 Type of epithelial tissue made up of cells whose shape resemble cubes
- 8 Flightless birds, for instance the

- penguin, have _____ bones
- 10 Some reptiles have _____ cells, which contain pigments to change color at will
- 13 _____ animals remain active at night time
- 14 The movable joint between the brain case and the roof of the skull is _____
- 17 _____ tissue is the fat accumulating under the skin, around organs, and other places
- 18 Bird organ where sounds are made
- 20 Sea _____ only come to land to lay eggs
- 21 The _____ projecting in the bird's sternum is similar to the shape of a ship's _____
- 22 _____ birds have long and slender legs useful to walk on wetlands

WORD BANK: Adipose, amphisbaenians, basal, brood, cervical, chromatophores, converts, cuboidal, distal, endoderm, faeces, gastroliths, hemorrhagic, keel, marsh, metakinetic, nocturnal, pamprodactyly, plumage, primaries, ratchet, sauropsida, solid, syrinx, turtles, vomeronasal.

